-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Amendment received on June 23, 2005 has been acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 9, 10, 13, 14, 16, 17, 19, and 20 are rejected under 35

U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Katoo et al. (2003/0172009 A1).

Katou et al. discloses a method of managing consumer goods and/or reagents (via reagents including test paper and test strips) used in an analyzer (via clinical test analysis devices 1), comprising the steps of: recording consumption information on consumer goods used in the analyzer (see for example paragraphs 32, 33, 0080); sorting the consumption information of the consumer goods according to consumer goods supplier (see paragraphs 0118-0122); and transmitting the sorted consumption information to a management unit for the analyzer or consumer goods suppliers supply management units (via data processing portion 25), and analyzing the consumption status of consumer goods used in the analyzer according to consumer goods supplier and consumer goods supplied (see paragraph 0080)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 4, 8, 12, 15, 18, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Katou et al.

Katou et al. further discloses confirming supply status based on the consumer goods supply management information (paragraph 0006).

Although Katou et al. recites setting quantity of consumables via contract between the consumables supplier C and the medical institutions. However, Katou does not explicitly disclose requesting payment from an analyzer administrator, consumer goods suppliers or a consumer goods vendor for use of the information being monitored. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have included the means for requesting payment when drafting supplies contracts in Katou et al. since such usually include purchase order transaction, shipping and payment and the Examiner takes Official Notice as such.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 2, 4-6, 8-10 and 12-21 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Mimura et al., Fritchie et al., and Merry et al. are cited as art of interest.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
